

Iowa Graduate Global Health Symposium

November 7
4-6 pm
College of Public Health Building

This symposium will be a unique opportunity for students and faculty to showcase their work in global health in an environment that will foster interdisciplinary networking and collaboration. Open to all students, faculty, and anyone interested in global health. Attendance is free.

4 – 5 pm: Featured Speakers, N110

Dean Sue Curry, PhD, College of Public Health
Welcome

Jose Morcuende, MD, PhD, Dept. of Orthopaedic Surgery
"Diffusion of Innovation: the Ponseti Method and Lessons Learned"

Chris Buresh, MD, MPH, FAAP, FAAEM, FACEP, Emergency Medicine
"Developing Rural Health Systems"

Marcella David, JD, Associate Dean for International & Comparative Law
"Lessons from Responding to the Haitian Disaster"

5 – 5:30 pm: Poster Session & Photo Contest, Atrium

5:30 – 6 pm: Student Speakers, Breakout Sessions

Luke Juran, MA, PhD Candidate, Dept. of Geography
"Boiling as a Method of Household Water Treatment: Efficacy, Barriers, and Caveats"

Erin Reynolds, PhD Epidemiology
"Exploring Chikungunya Fever in India: Developing an Intervention and a Guide to Global Research/IRB"

Jonathan Schultz, MPH, Medical Student
"Lessons from the Field: WHO/CDC Polio Eradication Program-Senegal"

Brianna Knoll, Biomedical Engineering, and Caroline Sanderson, Health Sciences
"Engineers without Borders - Customizing a Project to the Community"

6 pm: Networking & Appetizers, Atrium

For more information e-mail iowa.ghsymposium@gmail.com or go to: <http://ecgps.uiowa.edu/news/>

Sponsored by the Executive Council of Graduate and Professional Students, Graduate Student Senate, University of Iowa College of Public Health, University of Iowa Carver College of Medicine, and UI Global Health Club

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa-sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires an accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact Jaime Butler-Dawson in advance at 384-4389.